Exercise #5: Conduct Career Research

. I would like to learn more about:
2. Answer the following questions using resources in The Career Center Library, Melville Library, and the Web: What are the names of three directories or trade journals you have identified that relate to your field of interest? Whe are they found?
1.
2.
3.
3. Describe a current trend in the field that is discussed in one of these journals:
4. Name one professional association related to the field. What address, phone number, or web site would you use to make a first contact with them?
5. List one person on campus who you may be able to contact to learn more about the field:
6. List one person off campus who you may be able to contact as part of your research:
7. Name one print/web resource you will use to learn more about the field:
3. Name one organization/club/job/project you could pursue to test out the field:
9. Name three websites or other resources for identifying job postings for the field: